Sub: Regarding allow to participate of non eligible students in Inter College Tournament(s) session 2018-2019

Madam/Sir,

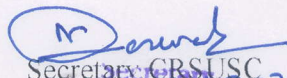

In this regard, it is to inform you that in the last session i.e. 2018-19, non eligible student players (against AIU Rules) from various College/Institute (affiliated with CRSU, Jind) were allowed by the Principal (concerned) to participate in Inter College Tournament(s)/Championship(s) 2018-19.

The matter of participation of non eligible students in Inter College Tournaments/Championships 2018-2019 was put up in the meeting of the Committee (constituted by the Vice-Chancellor to look in the matter and to take necessary action, accordingly)

As per the decision of last meeting of the Committee, it is to inform you that non eligible student players who has/have participated in Inter college Tournaments/ Championships 2018-19 will be deprived of merit certificate/certificate of participation or any other sports benefit for the session 2018-19.

Further, as per decision of the Committee, you are also being requested to direct the concerned Assistant Professor(s)/Associate Professor(Physical Education)/Sports Incharge/Team Incharge of your college/institute to strictly follow all the Rules & Regulation in future in respect to participation of student players in Inter College Tournaments/Championships or organization of any sports events /tournaments/championships. It will be sole responsibilities of college /institute if any non eligible student player(s)(student not full filling criteria of AIU Rules or any rules implemented by Sports Council of the University) is allowed to participate in the sports events of the University and matter will be put up to the Higher Authorities to take strict action, accordingly.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary, CRSUSC
Sports Council
